ORDER:

It is the complaint of the petitioner that the respondents are digging a channel through his fields without following due process of law.

2. A counter has been filed by the respondents saying that in fact the petitioner encroached the channel which was washed away in the floods and the land in question does not belong to him.

3. The dispute as to title and possession of the lands cannot be decided in this writ petition. Learned counsel for the petitioner, at this stage, seeks permission of this Court to withdraw the writ petition.

4. Permission is accorded.

5. The writ petition is accordingly dismissed as withdrawn leaving liberty to the petitioner to work out his remedies as available under law.
